AAFSC Announces Name Change to Ice House of New Jersey Figure Skating Club

Hackensack, New Jersey. American Academy Figure Skating Club (AAFSC) announced today that it has received a sanction from U.S. Figure Skating to change its name to Ice House of New Jersey Figure Skating Club (Ice House FSC) effective immediately. The club's principal headquarters will continue to be the Ice House – Home of Champions®.

“The Ice House is an internationally recognized training facility.” said Craig Maurizi, Director Figure Skating. “This is a primary training facility for skaters in the Tri-State area and we routinely host elite singles and pairs skaters from around the world. Our coaches are amongst the most renowned skaters in the world.”

“We are very excited about the name change and the positive impact our closer association with the Ice House will have on our members.” said Maria Morin, Ice House FSC Board President. “The Ice House has been the primary training facility for Olympic, World and National competitors. Our club has and will continue to provide key resources to skaters as they develop as athletes.”
