

For Immediate Release
January 31, 2011

Ridgewood Skater Wins Silver Medal at U.S. Junior Nationals

Hackensack, New Jersey. American Academy Figure Skating Club announced today that Liam Roumila of Ridgewood, joins the ranks of top men's Juvenile skaters as the 2010 Silver Medalist.

Liam is a member of the American Academy Figure Skating Club and trains at the Ice House in Hackensack, New Jersey. His achievement started with the North Atlantic Regionals held in Lake Placid in October 2010. Liam placed 6th, which qualified him for U.S. Figure Skating's Junior Nationals in Salt Lake City this past December. A total of 39 young men competed at Junior Nationals for the top three medals.

Ten year old Liam's winning program of jumps, spins, and footwork included a pair of double axels, and a double flip-single loop-double toe loop jump combination. He is coached by Igor Krokovec and Craig Maurizi. Igor is a former Slovakian Junior Men's Bronze medalist. Craig is Director of the Ice House Figure Skating School.

About American Academy Figure Skating Club (www.aafsc.org)

American Academy Figure Skating Club (AAFSC) is a not-for-profit organization providing support to the art and sport of figuring skating. Dues paying members are provided access to scholarships, competitions, and training facilities. AAFSC works in conjunction with the Ice House Figure Skating School under the direction of Craig Maurizi.

About Ice House Figure Skating School (www.icehousenj.com)

Ice House – Home of Champions® is a world-class New Jersey training facility for hockey and figure skating. Ice House features 4 NHL regulation sized rinks. The Director, Figure Skating runs the Ice House Basic Skills school, recognized as the top program in the nation for learn-to-skate students.

CONTACTS:

Maria Morin, Chairperson, AAFSC Board
Maria Witkowski, Media & Public Relations
(201) 791-7728